

How to get to Ringberg Castle

In addition to the information provided below, the Ringberg Castle website also has a travel page that offers useful advice.

Ringberg Castle is located on a hill overlooking Lake Tegernsee at the northern edge of the Bavarian Alps. The weather in February can be freezing, so make sure to bring warm clothing.

The town of Tegernsee can be reached by train from Munich; the ride takes ~1 hour.

If you arrive in Munich by airplane, book a train ticket in advance from Deutsche Bahn at <https://www.bahn.com/en/view/index.shtml>

Enter “Munich Airport T” as place of departure and “Bahnhof, Tegernsee” as destination. Enter dates and times as appropriate.

If you stay overnight in downtown Munich before or after the meeting, book your train tickets to and from “Munich” (München Hauptbahnhof) instead.

The screenshot shows the Deutsche Bahn (DB) website's train booking interface. The page has a red header with the DB logo and navigation links: Home, Contact, English, and a search bar. Below the header, there are tabs for Offers, Booking Information, Train Fleet, My Bahn, and Login. The main content area features a search form for train tickets. The form is titled "Timetable & booking" and includes fields for "from" (Munich Airport T) and "to" (Bahnhof, Tegernsee). It also has date and time selectors for departure (Sun, 24.02.19 at 14:00) and arrival (Wed, 27.02.19 at 11:30). There are radio buttons for "Dep" and "Arr" for both dates. Below the date and time fields, there are checkboxes for "Prefer fast connections" (checked) and "Local transport only". At the bottom of the form, there are dropdown menus for "1 traveller", "Adult", and "No BahnCard". There are also radio buttons for "1st class" and "2nd class" (selected). A "Search" button is located at the bottom right of the form.
